Disclaimer: Every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained in this booklet is accurate and consistent with the Local Electoral Act 2001. The Kaipara District Council takes no responsibility for any errors or omissions. It is recommended that candidates obtain a full copy of the Act, which is available online at www.legislation.govt.nz.

This handbook outlines information which may be of interest to you as a candidate in the 2016 local government elections.

In September 2012, following a review of the Kaipara District Council's performance, the Minister of Local Government appointed Commissioners to replace the elected Mayor and Councillors.

The Commissioners were appointed for a three year term, and the 2013 elections to Kaipara District Council were cancelled.

In April 2015, the Minister extended the Commissioners' term of office to October 2016, in line with the triennial election calendar.

The Commissioners will relinquish office when the new directly elected Councillors and Mayor are sworn in. Council officers and Commissioners have been working towards the transition back to elected representation as part of their terms of reference. A supported induction process is planned for all elected members to Kaipara District Council.

With the transition back to democracy, the next election of elected members to the Kaipara District Council will occur on Saturday 8 October 2016, and will be undertaken by postal vote.

The elections will be conducted under the provisions of the Local Electoral Act 2001 and the Local Electoral Regulations 2001. Other legislative references are found in section 5 of this handbook.

The electoral principles contained in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 are outlined below for candidate information. These principles must be taken into account in the conduct of any election or poll.

Principles

- (1) The principles that this Act is designed to implement are the following:
 - (a) fair and effective representation for individuals and communities
 - (b) all qualified persons have a reasonable and equal opportunity to
 - (i) cast an informed vote
 - (ii) nominate 1 or more candidates
 - (iii) accept nomination as a candidate
 - (c) public confidence in, and public understanding of, local electoral processes through
 - (i) the provision of a regular election cycle
 - (ii) the provision of elections that are managed independently from the elected body
 - (iii) protection of the freedom of choice of voters and the secrecy of the vote
 - (iv) the provision of transparent electoral systems and voting methods and the adoption of procedures that produce certainty in electoral outcomes
 - (v) the provision of impartial mechanisms for resolving disputed elections and polls.
- (2) Local authorities, electoral officers, and other electoral officials must, in making decisions under this Act or any other enactment, take into account those principles specified in subsection (1) that are applicable (if any), so far as is practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) This section does not override any other provision in this Act or any other enactment.

All local government elections are required to be conducted under the following legislation:

Local Electoral Act 2001

Local Electoral Regulations 2001

Local Government Act 2002

Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968

In addition, all district health board elections are subject to the following legislation:

New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000

Crown Entities Act 2004

Full copies of the above legislation are available online at www.legislation.govt.nz.

- Two electoral systems will be operating side by side for the 2016 elections. These are:

Single Transferable Voting (STV)

First Past the Post (FPP)

- Organisations using the STV electoral system are:

Kaipara District Council

Northland District Health Board

- Organisations using the FPP electoral system are:

Northland Regional Council

- For information on understanding how the STV electoral system works, refer to the Department of Internal Affairs website (www.stv.govt.nz).
- A comprehensive explanation on the New Zealand method of counting STV votes is found in Schedule 1A, Local Electoral Regulations 2001.
- Briefly, the STV electoral system consists of the following:
 - voters receive a single (transferable) vote no matter whether there is one vacancy or several;
 - voters rank the candidates in order of preference. "1" next to the name of the candidate most preferred, "2" next to the name of the candidate next preferred and so on;
 - when votes are counted, all the first preferences are allocated first. To be elected, a candidate must reach a "quota" of votes, which is based on the number of vacancies and the number of valid votes;
 - a candidate who reaches the quota is elected. If there is more than one vacancy and a candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion of each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. If, as a result, another candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion is transferred to third preferences, and so on;
 - if insufficient candidates reach the quota after the first preferences are allocated and after any surplus votes are transferred, then the candidate who received the fewest votes is eliminated and each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. This process is repeated until enough candidates reach the quota to fill all the vacancies.

1. A candidate for a city/ district/ regional council must be:
 - a New Zealand citizen; and
 - a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand)
[Section 25, Local Electoral Act 2001]

2. Restrictions on a candidate for a city/ district/ regional council:
 - a candidate may seek nomination for mayor and council but cannot also seek nomination for the Northland Regional Council ie a candidate may stand for the Kaipara District Council or the Northland Regional Council, but not both.
[Section 58 Local Electoral Act 2001].
 - a candidate (or candidate's spouse) for mayor or council cannot be a person concerned or interested in contracts over $25,000 with the Kaipara District Council [Section 3(1) Local Authorities (Member's Interests) Act 1968]. This restriction may be waived, and it is recommended that advice from Audit New Zealand is sought.
 - an employee of the Kaipara District Council who is elected as mayor or councillor must resign from his/her position as an employee of the Kaipara District Council before taking up his/her position. An employee will need to alert his/her manager of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged.
[Section 41(5) Local Government Act 2002].

3. A candidate for a district health board must be:
 - a New Zealand citizen; and
 - a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand); and
 - not disqualified by clause 17, Schedule 2, New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 (see below).

4. Restrictions on a candidate for a district health board:
 - a person cannot be a candidate for more than one district health board. (If a person is nominated for more than one district health board, all nominations are void).
 - Clause 17, Schedule 2, New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 states:

"Certain persons disqualified from membership

(1) None of the following persons may be elected or appointed as a member of a board, or appointed as a member of a board committee, of a District Health Board:

 - (c) a person who has failed to declare a material conflict of interest before accepting nomination as candidate for an election of a District Health Board held in conjunction with the immediately preceding triennial general election."

- (2) In addition to the grounds specified in subclause (1), a person may not be elected as a member of a board if that person is incapable of being elected as a member of a local authority because of section 25 of the Local Electoral Act 2001.
- (3) However, subclause (1)(a) does not disqualify a person described in section 30(2)(f) of that Act who is elected (rather than appointed) to office as a member under any other Act.
- Section 30 (2) (a) to (f) of the Crown Entities Act 2004 states:
 - (2) The following persons are disqualified from being members:
 - (a) a person who is an undischarged bankrupt;
 - (b) a person who is prohibited from being a director or promoter of, or being concerned or taking part in the management of, an incorporated or unincorporated body under the Companies Act 1993, or the Securities Act 1978, or the Securities Markets Act 1988, or the Takeovers Act 1993;

The candidate profile statement must be true and accurate and the electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in this statement. The profile may include a recent passport-size colour photograph.

- The candidate profile statement and colour photo are required to be submitted in hardcopy, not electronically (except where information in another language is provided). This information will be included with the voting document sent to each elector by the electoral officer, as well as being placed on the council's website.
- The candidate profile statement may be in English or Māori or both (maximum 150 words in either language) or in any other language (not exceeding 150 words in total). - (a) specify the concerns of the electoral officer and the reasons for those concerns; and
 - (b) unless the candidate profile statement does not comply with subsection (2)(b), specify a period, which must not be less than 3 days from the date of return of the statement, during which the candidate may submit an amended candidate profile statement to the electoral officer.
- (5) A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if subsection (4)(b) applies to the candidate and the candidate—

 - (i) any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or
 - (ii) the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

4. District health board conflict of interest statements

- All district health board nominations must be accompanied by a statement completed by the candidate that discloses any conflicts of interest that the candidate has with the district health board at the time of nomination or any conflicts of interest the candidate believes are likely to arise in the future.
- The conflict of interest statement is required to be included with the voting document sent to each elector by the electoral officer.
- Clause 6, Schedule 2 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000 states the following:

Candidate to declare conflicts of interest

When a candidate gives the responsible electoral officer notice of the candidate's consent to being nominated as a candidate, the candidate must also give the electoral officer a statement completed by the candidate in good faith that –

- (a) discloses any conflicts of interest that the candidate has with the District Health Board as at the date of the candidate's notice of consent, or states that the candidate has no such conflicts of interest as at that date; and
- (b) discloses any such conflicts of interest that the candidate believes are likely to arise in future, or states that the candidate does not believe that any such conflicts of interest are likely to arise in the future.

5. Completion of nomination paper

- Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (eg if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific ward, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific ward).
- If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (eg absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.
- If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (eg Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.
- Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the electoral office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (eg mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

6. Affiliation

- The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated).'

- Individual candidates not part of an organisation or group may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).
- A candidate claiming a specific affiliation should supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (ie letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations.
- Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones :
 - that might cause offence or
 - are likely to confuse or mislead electors or
 - are election slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.
- Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

7. Return of nomination paper

- Completed nomination papers can be lodged at the:
 - Council's Main Office, 42 Hokianga Road, Dargaville
 - Mangawhai Service Centre, Unit 6, The Hub, 6 Molesworth Drive, Mangawhai or posted to:

The Electoral Officer
 Kaipara District Council
 C/- Independent Election Services Ltd
 PO Box 5135
 Wellesley Street
 Auckland 1141

in time to be received no later than noon, Friday 12 August 2016.

- All nomination material (nomination paper, candidate profile statement [if provided], nomination deposit) are required to be lodged together.
 [Section 55(2)(f) Local Electoral Act 2001].
- A receipt will be issued to acknowledge that a nomination has been received. This receipt does not constitute an acknowledgement that the nomination paper is in order.
- Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate's name appears on a Parliamentary Roll and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (eg ward).

- Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the final quota as determined at the last iteration (for STV elections), or greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections).
- Payment of the nomination deposit can be made by cash, electronic transfer (eftpos, internet payment), bank cheque or personal cheque. Evidence of an internet payment will be required to be lodged with the nomination. Should a personal cheque be dishonored, the nomination becomes invalid as the deposit has not lawfully been made.

Electronic payments should be paid into the following bank account:

01 0102 0437238 00

Cheques should be made payable to:

Independent Election Services Ltd

- The lodgement of nomination papers and candidate profile statements should not be left to the last minute. Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may be insufficient time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

- Nominations can be returned by mail, but should these be received by the electoral officer or electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

8. Cancellation of Nomination

- A candidate is able to withdraw his/her nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday 12 August 2016). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw his/her nomination.
[Section 69 of the Local Electoral Act 2001].
- However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.
- 'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because he or she is suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office.
[Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001].
- An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

People interested in standing for election are invited to attend candidate information meetings as follows:

Monday 1 August 2016

5.30pm - Dargaville Town Hall, Hokianga Road, Dargaville

Tuesday 2 August 2016

12.30pm - Kaiwaka Sports Hall, 2 Gibbons Road, Kaiwaka

The candidate information meetings are held to provide an opportunity for those members of the public who are considering standing for office to find out how the organisation is structured, the skills required, the role and responsibilities of elected representatives, and matters pertaining to the elections (eligibility, nominations, timetable, induction process and remuneration).

Registration to attend is not required.

For further information, contact Sean Mahoney, Governance Services Manager, on 0800 727 059.

- Election campaigning can commence anytime and may continue up to and including election day.
- Election signs are permitted on private property (with the owner's consent) at any time within the two months preceding the election. Signs must be erected in a stable fashion, not being a hazard to public or traffic safety. Council policy on election hoardings is detailed in section 12 of this handbook.
- Election offences are detailed for your information in this handbook (section 19). Please refer to them for your own protection. No election material can contain any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (eg under the Defamation Act 1992) and calculated to influence the vote of any elector. No election material may contain an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.
- Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver his or her own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.
- Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how he or she should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.
- Election advertising, using any media, must identify:
 - (i) the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced and
 - (ii) the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person under whose authority they have been produced.
[Section 113, Local Electoral Act].
- Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

113 Advertisements for candidates

- (1) No person may publish or cause to be published in any newspaper, periodical, notice, poster, pamphlet, handbill, billboard, or card, or broadcast or permit to be broadcast over any radio or television station, any advertisement that is used or appears to be used to promote or procure the election of a candidate at an election, unless subsection (2) or subsection (4) applies.
- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if—
 - (a) the publication of that advertisement is authorised in writing by the candidate or the candidate's agent or, in the case of an advertisement relating to more than 1 candidate, the candidates or an agent acting for all of those candidates; and
 - (b) the advertisement contains a statement setting out the true name of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published and the address of his or her place of residence or business.

- (3) A candidate is not responsible for an act committed by an agent without the consent or connivance of the candidate.
- (4) A person may publish or cause to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
 - (a) the publication of the advertisement is endorsed by an organisation or body representing residents or ratepayers in the community or district in which the advertisement is published; and
 - (b) the advertisement contains a statement setting out -

- (6) A person who wilfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

1. Electoral Expenses

- Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on his or her campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST].

- Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise). These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.
- If a candidate is standing for more than one position (eg mayor and council) then the higher limit applies (not both combined).
- The population distribution for the Kaipara District Council (population estimates as at 30 June 2015) is:

Ward	Population
Dargaville	4,830
Otamatea	8,940
West Coast/Central	7,370
	21,140
source: Statistics New Zealand

- The estimated expenditure limit for the mayor is $20,000 (including GST), based on 21,140 population (as at 30 June 2015).
- The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day (ie 8 July 2016 to 8 October 2016). However legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.
- Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.
- Nomination deposits are not an electoral expense and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

2. Electoral Donations

- New provisions relating to candidate donations were enacted in 2013.
- (a) Candidate donations
- A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.
 - Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.
 - A candidate donation includes:
 - where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
 - where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
 - where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example a fundraising auction or dinner.
 - The following are not deemed a donation:
 - volunteer labour;
 - goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or
 - money provided by the candidate for his or her own campaign.

- If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

(b) Donations made up of contributions

- Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.
- The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.
- If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:
 - the name and address of the donor;
 - whether the donation is made up of contributions;
 - the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and
 - in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.
- If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

(c) Transmitted donations

- A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.
- When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:
 - that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor.
 - the name and address of the donor.
 - whether the donation is made up of contributions.
 - the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
 - in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor).

- Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

(d) Anonymous donations

- Candidates are not allowed to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.
- If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, he or she may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

3. Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

- A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (estimated to be by 9 December 2016). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.
- The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out —
 - the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
 - the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
 - details of the candidate's electoral expenses.
- The details of every electoral donation are —
 - the name of the donor; and
 - the address of the donor; and
 - the amount of the donation or, in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
 - the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.
- The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are —
 - the date the donation was received; and
 - the amount of the donation; and
 - the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

- With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid. Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be documented with an invoice or a bill and a receipt.
- Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of 7 years. During this period, the returns:
 - (i) are placed on Council's website;
 - (ii) can be inspected by any person;
 - (iii) copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

- Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Councillors at Kaipara District Council are 'Officers' under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of Council. At Kaipara District Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'.

As a PBCU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), Council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that Council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility councillors have to exercise due diligence over Council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to Council's safety culture, and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage Council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

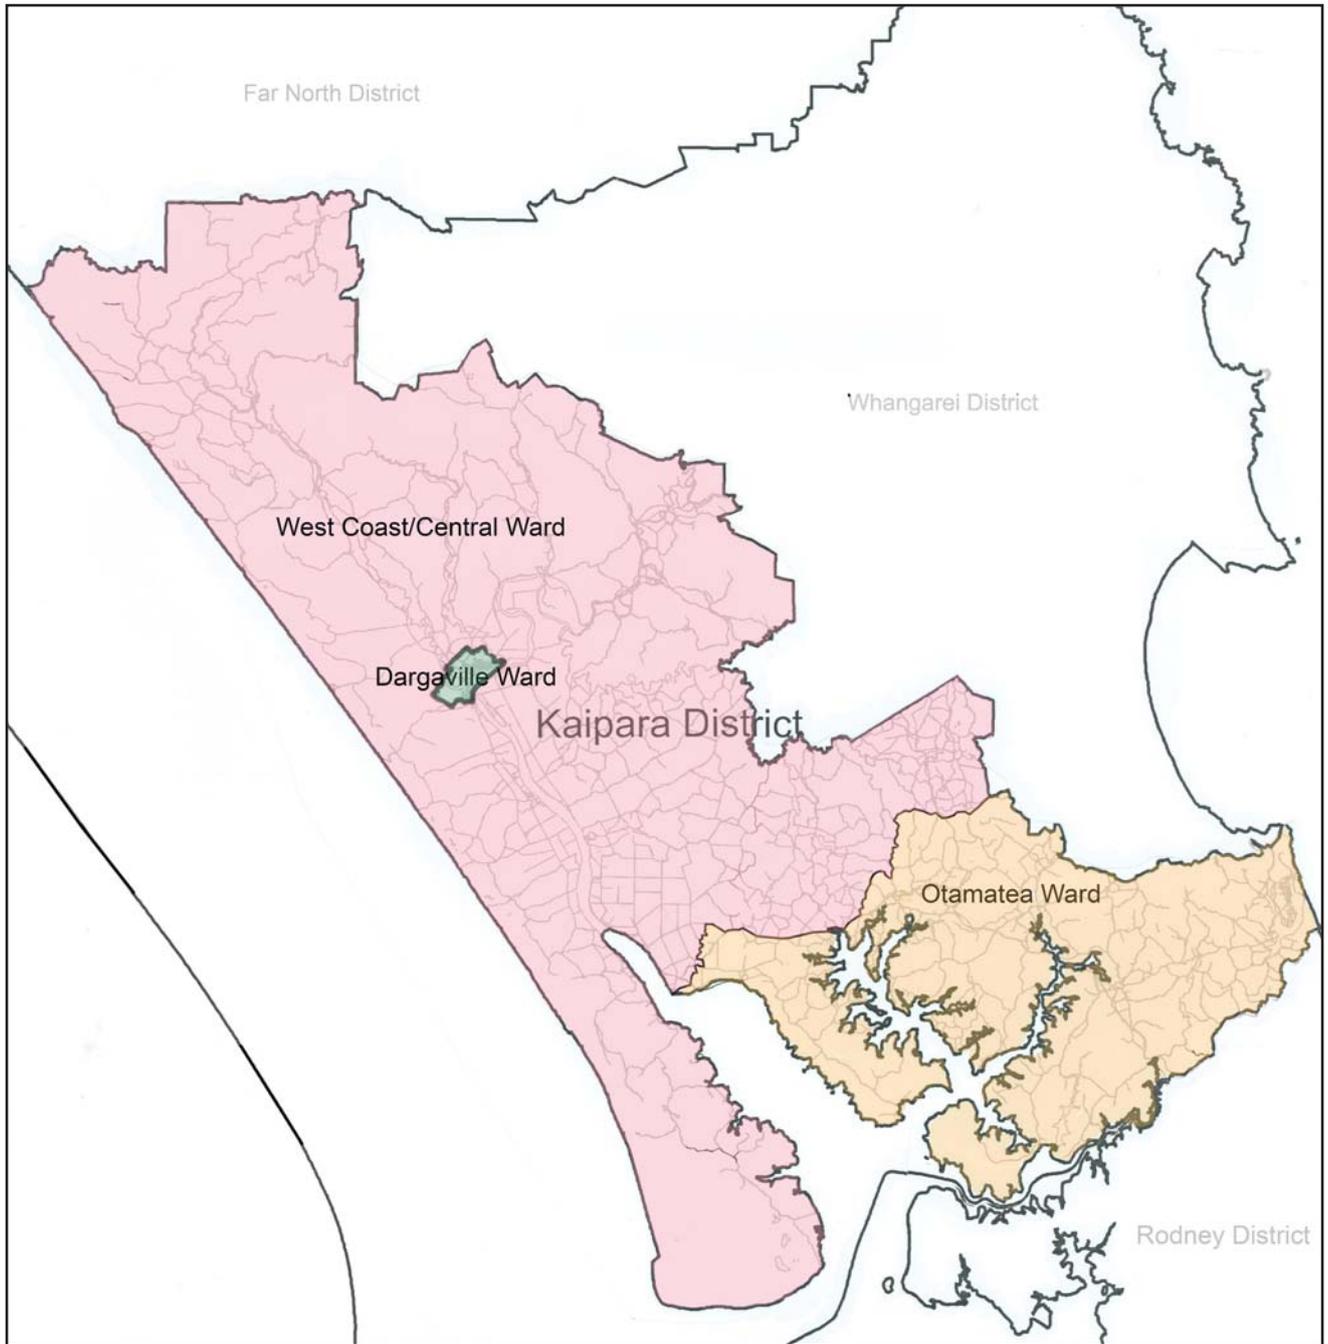

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

1. Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for Council.
2. Understand Council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
3. Ensure Council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
4. Ensure Council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
5. Ensure Council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
6. Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

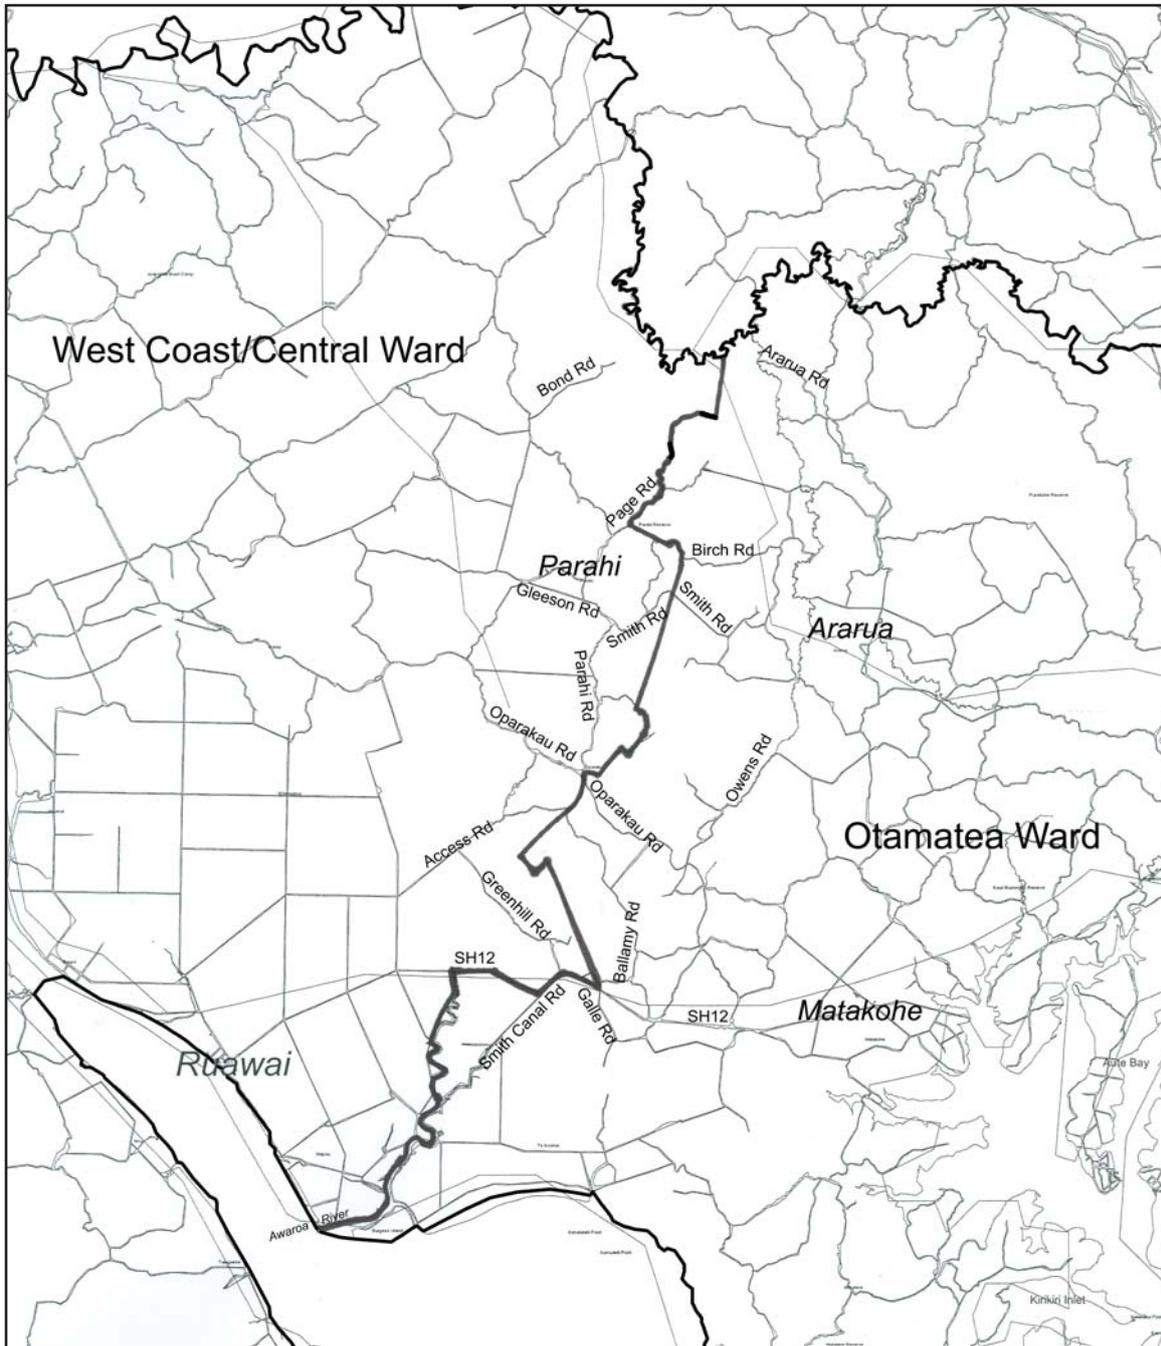

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the new Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.

Population

Total population in Northland in 2016 is 170,000 and is projected to be 178,700 in 2026.

The 2013 census recorded that nearly half of the population (about 77,000) lived in Whangarei District, the rest in Far North District (about 56,000) and Kaipara District (about 19,000).

Northland's population is 30% Maori.

Health need and deprivation

Northland has one of the most deprived populations in the country, as indicated by the predominance of red shadings on the 2013 map.

62% of our population is in the lowest 2 quintiles, compared with the New Zealand figure of 40%.

Within Northland, the most deprived District Council area is the Far North, with 74% of its residents in the lowest 2 quintiles, compared with Whangarei 53% and Kaipara 65%.

Northland DHB

Northland DHB is responsible for both providing and funding health services from the money allocated by Government through Vote:Health . Northland DHB provides strategic oversight for health and disability services in Northland by identifying needs, setting priorities, and allocating funding.

Services provided by Northland DHB consist of:

- the hospitals in Whangarei, Kaitaia, Kawakawa and Dargaville
- Community, Dental and Public Health Services which provide primary care, health promotion and health protection services.

Northland DHB also oversees contracts with non-government organisations (NGOs) and monitors their performance. NGOs include private providers (including GPs, pharmacists and other primary care providers), Maori providers, mental health service providers, disability support service providers and aged care providers.

The health sector in Northland

In 2016/17 Northland DHB anticipates total revenue of about $590m for health services in Northland. Altogether, Northland DHB manages about 261 contracts across about 132 providers throughout Northland.

Northland's planning and funding process

Analysing health need

Northland DHB's planning and funding role involves assessing needs within our population, and allocating funding to improve health status and reduce inequalities. We focus on those with higher health need such as Maori, older people, children and youth and those with chronic health conditions. Our priorities must remain consistent with national priorities. We continually gather data about the health status of our communities to ensure we have up-to-date information on the health needs of Northlanders.

All Northland DHB's planning and strategy documents can be found on our website: www.northlanddhb.org.nz

Development of plans

The guidance provided by the above processes enables us to draw up our Northland Health Services Plan (NHSP). This is a high level description of Northland DHB's 'big picture' intentions that identifies key priorities and broad strategies to address these.

Northland DHB also has an Annual Plan (AP) for each financial year that sets out our intentions for meeting national and regional priorities for health service delivery.

The NHSP and AP can be found on our website: www.northlanddhb.org.nz

Prioritisation of health services

Northland DHB uses a process based on the "Triple Aim, concept (set out in the NHSP) to assess how we fund and deliver health services. The criterion includes:

- Population health – improving the health of Northlanders and reducing health inequalities.
- Patient experience – patients and whanau experiencing clinically and culturally safe, good quality, effective, efficient and timely care.
- Value and sustainability – the Northland health system living within available funding by improving productivity and prioritising resources to their most effective uses.

Monitoring and evaluation

Once funding is allocated, contracts are monitored by Northland DHB.
