Electoral principles

Key message

The electoral principles contained in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 are outlined below for candidate information. These principles must be taken into account in the conduct of any election or poll.

Principles

- (1) The principles that this Act is designed to implement are the following:
 - a. fair and effective representation for individuals and communities
 - aa. representative and substantial electoral participation in local elections and polls.
 - b. all qualified persons have a reasonable and equal opportunity to:
 - i. cast an informed vote;
 - ii. nominate 1 or more candidates;
 - iii. accept nomination as a candidate.
- c. public confidence in, and public understanding of, local electoral processes through:
 - i. the provision of a regular election cycle;
 - ii. the provision of elections that are managed independently from the elected body;
 - iii. protection of the freedom of choice of voters and the secrecy of the vote;
 - iv. the provision of transparent electoral systems and voting methods and the adoption of procedures that produce certainty in electoral outcomes;
 - v. the provision of impartial mechanisms for resolving disputed elections and polls.
- (2) Local authorities, electoral officers, and other electoral officials must, in making decisions under this Act or any other enactment, take into account those principles specified in subsection (1) that are applicable (if any), so far as is practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) This section does not override any other provision in this Act or any other enactment.

Electoral legislation

Key message

All local government elections are required to be conducted strictly following legislation.

Legislation to be followed

- Local Electoral Act 2001
- Local Electoral Regulations 2001
- Local Government Act 2002
- Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968

In addition, all district health board elections are subject to the following legislation:

- New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000
- Crown Entities Act 2004

Full copies of the above legislation are available online at www.legislation.govt.nz

Key message

Two electoral systems will be operating side by side for the 2019 elections, these being:

- First Past the Post (FPP)
- Single Transferable Voting (STV)

Organisations using the FPP electoral system are:

- Far North District Council
- Northland Regional Council
- Whangarei District Council

Organisations using the STV electoral system are:

- Kaipara District Council
- Northland District Health Board

Understanding FPP

When you vote in an FPP election, you tick the name of the candidate(s) you most prefer, up to the number of vacancies.

When the votes are counted, the candidate(s) with the most votes is/are elected.

For example, if there is one vacancy, you can vote for one candidate. If there are three vacancies, you can vote for up to three candidates.

Understanding STV

For information on understanding how the STV electoral system works, refer to the Department of Internal Affairs website (www.stv.govt.nz)

A comprehensive explanation on the New Zealand method of counting STV votes is found in Schedule 1A, Local Electoral Regulations 2001.

Briefly, the STV electoral system consists of the following:

- voters receive a single (transferable) vote no matter whether there is one vacancy or several;
- voters rank the candidates in order of preference. "1" next to the name of the candidate most preferred, "2" next to the name of the candidate next preferred and so on;
- when votes are counted, all the first preferences are allocated first. To be elected, a candidate must reach a "quota" of votes, which is based on the number of vacancies and the number of valid votes;
- a candidate who reaches the quota is elected. If there is more than one vacancy and a candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion of each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. If, as a result, another candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion is transferred to third preferences, and so on;
- if insufficient candidates reach the quota after the first preferences are allocated and after any surplus votes are transferred, then the candidate who received the fewest votes is eliminated and each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. This process is repeated until enough candidates reach the quota to fill all the vacancies.

- a New Zealand citizen; and
- a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand); [Section 25, Local Electoral Act 2001]
- nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the constituency the candidate is standing for.

Candidate restrictions

Restrictions on a candidate for the Northland Regional Council are:

This restriction may be waived, and it is recommended that advice from the Office of the Auditor-General is sought.
- an employee of the Northland Regional Council who is elected as councillor must resign from their position as an employee of the Northland Regional Council before taking up their position. An employee will need to alert their manager of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged. [Section 41(5) Local Government Act 2002].

 - i. any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or
 - ii. the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

Completion of nomination paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific constituency, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific constituency).

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.

Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the electoral office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (e.g. mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated).'

Individual candidates, not part of an organisation or group, may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).

A candidate claiming a specific affiliation must supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (i.e. letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations.

Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones:

- that might cause offence or;
- are likely to confuse or mislead electors or;
- are election slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group.

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.

Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

Return of nomination paper

Completed nomination papers can be lodged at the:

Northland Regional Council
36 Water Street
Whangarei

or posted to:

The Electoral Officer

A receipt will be issued to acknowledge that a nomination has been received. This receipt does not constitute an acknowledgment that the nomination paper is in order.

Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate's name appears on the Parliamentary Roll and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. constituency).

Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections) or greater than 25% of the final quota as determined at the last iteration (for STV elections).

The lodgement of nomination papers should not be left to the last minute. Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may be insufficient time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

Nominations can be returned by mail, but should these be received by the electoral officer or electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Cancellation of nomination

A candidate is able to withdraw their nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday 16 August 2019). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw their nomination.

[Section 69, Local Electoral Act 2001].

However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.

'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because they are suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office. [Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001].

An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

For further information, contact Chris Taylor, Governance Support Manager, on (09) 470 1224.

Key message

Election campaigning can commence anytime and may continue up to and including election day. However there are certain constraints candidates need to be aware of.

The locations and periods of display of election signs depend on the territorial authority you are campaigning in.

All signs must be erected in a stable fashion, not being a hazard to public or traffic safety. Council policies on election signs are detailed on page 29 of this handbook.

Campaigning

Election material cannot contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (e.g. under the Defamation Act 1992);
- an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.

Use of council resources

Candidates are not permitted to use council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources include, but are not limited to, the council's logo, crest or branding, website, Facebook page, Twitter account, any other forms of social media, tablets, computers, ipads, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire). This applies to either sitting members, council staff or other candidates in any context that could reasonably be construed as campaigning for elections.

Social media

Social media can be a useful tool for candidates for campaigning purposes and electioneering. Candidates should however be aware of any council social media guidelines for candidates and should comply with these at all times.

Candidates should be aware that election advertising, using any media, including on social media, must identify the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced and the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person under whose authority they have been produced [Section 113, Local Electoral Act 2001]. This may be details of the candidate or their agent, and may be included on a profile picture, or within the bio section of a page.

For example: 'All content/images contained on this social media page/advertisement are authorised by [name], [physical address]'.

Commenting on and sharing council posts

Northland Regional Council (NRC) and Northland Inc (NINC) web and social media channels may not be used by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for campaigning or electioneering. These channels include (but are not limited to) Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram and Youtube. Any such comments will be deleted immediately.

Any post (positive or negative) made on an NRC or NINC page by an individual specifically relating to their own (or someone else's) nomination, intention to run for council or election campaign, will be removed immediately.

Candidates cannot comment on NRC or NINC social media posts encouraging people to like or follow their own social media accounts (or their information on any other digital electioneering platform). Any posts or comments that do this will be removed immediately.

Candidates must not share or tag NRC or NINC social media pages.

Multimedia assets (e.g. images, videos and graphics) publicly available on the council website may be used to educate or inform people about what council does. However, original versions of these assets will not be supplied to candidates.

Working with staff

No candidate should approach NRC staff (in their capacity as a staff member) for advice or support with the set up or management of their social media accounts.

Candidates must not actively solicit social media sharing, posting or any other form of endorsement from staff (in their capacity as a staff member). Council staff must observe political neutrality when performing their duties as an employee of council.

NRC and NINC channels will:

Unlike/unfollow all candidate pages for the pre-election and election period.

Remain neutral during the election process but will encourage people to stand for election and encourage the general public to vote in the elections. These posts will not be associated with any candidates.

Offences

Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how they should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.

Election offences are detailed for your information on page 47 of this handbook. Please refer to them for your own protection.

Election advertising

Election advertising, using any media, must show an authorisation statement. This statement must include:

- the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced; and
- the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act].

This includes election advertising on signs, in newspapers, on flyers and posters, on a vehicle and on election websites.

Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

113 Advertisements for candidates

- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -
 - a. the publication of that advertisement is authorised in writing by the candidate or the candidate's agent or, in the case of an advertisement relating to more than 1 candidate, the candidates or an agent acting for all of those candidates; and
 - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out the true name of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published and the address of their place of residence or business.

 - ii. the true name of the organisation or body that has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
- (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Electoral donations and expenses

Key message

Candidates need to be aware to keep a record of all donations received and expenses incurred in their election campaign. Election expenditure limits will apply, these depending on the population size of the area of the election the candidate is standing for.

Every candidate must, by law, complete an Electoral Donations and Expenses Return declaring all donations and expenses and forwarded to the electoral office by Friday 13 December 2019.

Electoral expenses

Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on their campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST].

Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise). These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.

The population distribution for the Northland Regional Council (population estimates as at 30 June 2017) is:

Constituency	Population	Limit $
Coastal Central	20,070	$20,000
Coastal North	42,160	$30,000
Coastal South	17,760	$14,000
Hokianga-Kaikohe	16,120	$14,000
Kaipara	18,060	$14,000
Whangārei Urban	41,440	$30,000
Te Hiku	19,860	$14,000
	175,470

source: Statistics New Zealand as at 30 June 2017

The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day (i.e. 12 July 2019 to 12 October 2019). However legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.

Nomination deposits, voluntary labour and election sign framework are not electoral expenses and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Electoral donations

a. Candidate donations

A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.

Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.

A candidate donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not deemed a donation:

- volunteer labour;
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or
- money provided by the candidate for their own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

b. Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.

The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.

If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

c. Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.

When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor;
- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

d. Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.

If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, they may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (by 13 December 2019). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.

The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out —

- the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
- the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
- details of the candidate's electoral expenses.

The details of every electoral donation are -

- the name of the donor; and
- the address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are —

- the date the donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation; and
- the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid. Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be vouched by an invoice or a bill and a receipt.

Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of seven years. During this period, the returns:

- are placed on council's website;
- can be inspected by any person;
- copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

- (2) If any election activity relates exclusively to campaigns for the election of two or more candidates, any electoral expenses in respect of that electoral activity must be apportioned equitably in relation to each of those candidates.

- (2) The candidate or person commits an offence and is liable on conviction—
 - a. to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years, or a fine not exceeding $10,000, if they knew the payment was in excess of the relevant prescribed maximum amount; or

Subpart 3—Return of electoral donations and expenses

112A Return of electoral donations and expenses

- (1) Within 55 days after the day on which the successful candidates at any election are declared to be elected, every candidate at the election must file a return of electoral donations and expenses.

All election advertising, including election signs etc are to display the true name and physical address (place of residence or business) of the person authorising them [Section 113 (2) (b) Local Electoral Act 2001].

Policy # 2112 - Election Hoardings Date reviewed: December 2014:

The following policy can be enforced by council's current "Control of the use of Public Places" bylaw, clause 3212.3 which states "Election signs shall be placed in accordance with Far North District Council's Policy #2112, Election Hoardings."

Background:

Council has adopted a policy for the erection of election hoardings (signs). The purpose of the policy is to give clear direction to those wishing to erect election hoardings on council property and clear authority to remove hoardings that are contravening the policy.

The Electoral Act 1993 section 221 – Display of Advertisement of a Specified Kind sets the regulations for local and national elections regarding the size shape and features of election hoardings.

Local election hoardings must also be authorised in accordance with the Local Electoral Act 2001 section 113(2)(b).

This policy applies to local and national elections and will be made available to candidates prior to each election.

Goal

Election hoardings are located in places that reduces the impact on community infrastructure and traffic and pedestrian safety.

Policy statement

Far North District Council considers elections hoardings as temporary signs that are controlled by the Control of the Use of Public Places bylaw.

The Bylaw states election signs shall be placed in accordance with Far North District Council's Policy #2112 – Election Hoardings. All election hoardings erected on a public place must comply with the conditions detailed in section 4 "Compliance Conditions" of this policy

- (5) If the chief executive is of the opinion that any hoarding contravenes the above policy he may, without further authority from the council, take whatever action he considers appropriate to remove the hoarding.

- (6) No election hoarding may use reflective materials or illuminations, or moving parts and must not look like a traffic sign in shape or colour [Section 5-8 of the Electoral (Advertising of a Specified Kind) Regulation 2005].

Electoral rolls for the Northland Regional Council are produced by the three constituent territorial authorities (Far North District, Kaipara District and Whangarei District) and may be obtained from the respective constituent territorial authority offices.

The preliminary electoral roll, containing both resident and non-resident ratepayer electors, will be available for public inspection from 19 July 2019 to 16 August 2019. All registered electors (as at 16 August 2019) whose name is on the final electoral roll will be issued voting packs.

Resident electors

Those eligible to vote are:

- all residents enrolled on the Parliamentary Electoral Roll within the region; and

- are 18 years of age or over; and
- have at some time resided continuously in New Zealand for one year or longer; and
- are not disqualified under the Electoral Act 1993.

Residents of each constituent territorial authority area are enrolled automatically on the Residential Electoral Roll if they are registered as Parliamentary electors. Therefore, there is no need to enrol separately for these elections.

Residents who are not residents of a constituent territorial authority within the region but pay rates on a property in another constituent territorial authority may be entitled to enrol on a respective Ratepayer Electoral Roll for that local authority area.

Companies, businesses, trusts, corporations or societies which are ratepayers of a property within the region may also nominate an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the region.

Partners, joint tenants and tenants in common who collectively pay rates on a property within the region may also nominate one of the group who is an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the region.

- Kaipara District Council - $60.00 including GST

Final electoral roll

The final electoral roll is produced once the preliminary electoral roll closes on 16 August 2019. The final electoral roll contains the details used for issuing voting documents. Copies of this roll will also be available for purchase.

Roll data requests

Information contained on the electoral roll is not available from the electoral office in an electronic form, but candidates or political parties may request an electronic listing of resident electors from the Electoral Commission (provided the criteria of section 114 of the Electoral Act 1993 are met). An application form is required to be completed, and these are available upon request from the Electoral Commission.

Note however that elector details for the area a candidate is standing for only will be provided, and this data is unable to be passed on to any third-party and must be used for election purposes.

With regard to a listing of non-resident ratepayer electors, a candidate may purchase mailing labels and/or postal address lists from the electoral office.

Candidates or candidate scrutineers may request, before the close of voting, a listing of names of persons from whom voting documents have been returned. Such a request can be supplied in either hardcopy or electronic copy, and a reasonable charge will be made for this. [Section 68 (6) Local Electoral Act 2001].

Voting and special voting

Key message

The three-week voting period is Friday 20 September to noon Saturday 12 October 2019. Voting packs are posted to electors from Friday 20 September 2019. Special votes are available to those who have not received an ordinary vote during the voting period or enrolled on the electoral roll after 16 August 2019.

Postal voting

The election is being conducted by postal vote. Voting documents are posted to all electors whose names appear on the final electoral roll for the respective constituent territorial authority with delivery commencing Friday 20 September 2019. All electors should have received their voting documents by Wednesday 25 September 2019.

Each elector, after receiving their voting document, should complete it, seal it in the return, postage paid envelope, and post or deliver it to the electoral officer.

If hand delivered, completed voting documents can be lodged at:

- Far North District Council, Memorial Avenue, Kaikohe;
- Kaipara District Council, 42 Hokianga Road, Dargaville;
- Whangarei District Council, Forum North, Rust Avenue, Whangarei.

When posting voting documents back, it is recommended these be posted by 5pm, Tuesday 8 October 2019 to guarantee delivery before the close of voting (noon, Saturday 12 October 2019).

There is currently no online voting option for these elections.

Special votes

Special votes are available to electors:

- whose names do not appear on the final electoral roll, but who qualify as electors;

- who did not receive a voting document previously posted to them;
- who spoil or damage a voting document previously posted to them.

Special votes are available from Friday 20 September 2019 to noon, Saturday 12 October 2019 from:

- by telephoning the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

Special votes can be posted directly to electors. The completed voting document however, must be returned to the electoral officer by noon on election day.

Special votes require the completion of a statutory declaration. This is a legal requirement and a protection for electors against possible duplicate voting.

If an elector requests a special vote and is not on the Parliamentary electoral roll (e.g. just turned 18 years of age), the person must enrol by Friday 11 October 2019 (the day before the close of voting). An application for registration as a Parliamentary elector may be obtained:

- from any NZ Post agency; or
- telephoning 0800 ENROLNOW (0800 36 76 56); or
- by accessing the Electoral Commission website - www.elections.org.nz

After voting closes, special vote declarations are forwarded to Registrars of Electors for verification that the elector is eligible and has enrolled as a Parliamentary elector.

Special votes cannot be collected by candidates or their assistants for distribution to electors.

Early processing of returned voting documents

Key message

During the voting period, returned voting documents are able to be opened and processed, but not counted.

When departing the premises, scrutineers are to return their name tag to the electoral officer or deputy electoral officer.

Any scrutineer may leave or re-enter the place where election functions are being conducted, but it is an offence (and liable for a fine) to:

- make known for what candidate any voter has voted;
- make known the state of the election, or give or pretend to give any information by which the state of the election may be known, before the close of voting.

The scrutiny of the roll will be undertaken at the electoral office (Level 2, 198 Federal Street, Auckland), during normal office hours between Monday 23 September 2019 and to noon, Saturday 12 October 2019.

The preliminary count of votes will commence once voting closes at noon on Saturday 12 October 2019 at the electoral office.

The official count of votes will be undertaken once the preliminary count is concluded and the final result will be known on Thursday 17 October 2019. The official count will also occur at the electoral office.

The role of scrutineers is to ensure that election procedures are undertaken correctly and that the count of votes is done fairly and reasonably.

Remuneration

Waipu Cove.

Key message

Elected members are entitled to be paid for the work undertaken. This remuneration is generally by way of a base salary and allowances for such things as mileage etc.

Member remuneration

The Remuneration Authority is a statutory body that establishes remuneration for local government.

In 2018 the Remuneration Authority reviewed the remuneration of elected members, moving from a “partial pool” approach to a “full pool” approach.

The new approach will take effect following the elections and will be based on the revised remuneration levels, confirmed by the Remuneration Authority in July.

Base remuneration for members of the Northland Regional Council (as at 1 July 2019) will be as follows:

Position	$PA
Chairperson	$122,056
Deputy chairperson	$79,153
Committee chairperson	$69,459
Portfolio Leader	$69,459
Councillor	$ 56,537

The chairperson currently has the full use of a council vehicle and a deduction is made from his salary to provide for this entitlement.

Councillors may claim reimbursement for travelling beyond set thresholds. Mileage is paid at $0.79 per kilometre (for a petrol or diesel vehicle) for the first 14,000 kilometres and at $0.30 thereafter. Payment of expenses, reimbursements and allowances (e.g. training, accommodation, etc.) are subject to council’s policy.

Communications devices will be provided to enable councillors to perform their duties.

Health and safety responsibilities

Key message

All elected members of the Northland Regional Council are required to comply with the duties and obligations of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of council. At Northland Regional Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'. The boards of council-controlled organisations and their chief executives are also officers.

As a PCBU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility councillors and local boards have to exercise due diligence over council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to council's safety culture, and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

- (1) Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for council.
- (2) Understand council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
- (3) Ensure council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
- (4) Ensure council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
- (5) Ensure council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
- (6) Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the new Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.

Pre-election period

Pre-election period communications

The triennial local body election will be held by postal voting from the third week in September 2019, culminating in election day on 12 October 2019.

Councillors may be aware that all elected members are impacted by the three month "pre-election period" which comes into effect on 12 July 2019. This period is the subject of guidelines produced by the office of the auditor general (OAG) which are intended to ensure that conduct by council staff is not perceived to support the election of a particular candidate.

This report summarises the relevant sections of these guidelines. Elected members are encouraged to be familiar with these, to ensure their own conduct during the pre-election period does not result in the guidelines being breached (or being perceived as having been breached).

Principle 12

A local authority must not promote, nor be perceived to promote, the re-election prospects of a sitting member. Therefore, the use of council resources for re-election purposes is unacceptable and possibly unlawful.

Promoting the re-election prospects of a sitting member, directly or indirectly, wittingly or unwittingly, is not part of the proper role of a local authority.

A council would be directly promoting a member's re-election prospects if it allowed the member to use council communications facilities (such as stationery, postage, internet, email, or telephones) explicitly for campaign purposes.

Other uses of council communications facilities during a pre-election period may also be unacceptable. For example, allowing members access to council resources to communicate with constituents, even in their official capacities as members, could create a perception that the council is helping sitting members to promote their re-election prospects over other candidates. For this reason, elected members should ensure that any reports during the pre-election period do not include statements which could be perceived as campaigning on either their own behalf or of other candidates.

OAG recommends that mass communications facilities - such as council-funded newsletters to constituents and chairman's or members' columns in council publications - be suspended during the pre-election period.

Promoting the re-election prospects of a sitting member could also raise issues under the Local Electoral Act 2001. For example:

Local elections must be conducted in accordance with the principles set out in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act. The principles apply to any decision made by a council under that Act or any other Act, subject only to the limits of practicality. A breach of the principles can give rise to an "irregularity" which could result in an election result being overturned. In this context the principles relate to public confidence in the election process, transparency, and fairness. The conduct (including decision-making, activities, and public statements) of all elected members and council staff during the pre-election period is expected to uphold these principles.

The publication, issue, or distribution of information, and the use of electronic communications (including web site and email communication), by a candidate are "electoral activities" to which the rules concerning disclosure of electoral expenses apply.

Whangarei Heads.

“Electoral expenses” include:

- the reasonable market value of any materials applied in respect of any electoral activity that are given to the candidate or that are provided to the candidate free of charge or below reasonable market value; and
- the cost of any printing or postage in respect of any electoral activity.

A member’s use of council resources for electoral purposes could therefore be an “electoral expense” which the member would have to declare – unless it could be shown that the communication also related to council business and was made in the candidate’s capacity as a member.

Principle 13

Communications by or about members, in their capacities as spokespersons for council, during a pre-election period could result in the member achieving electoral advantage at ratepayers’ expense. The chief executive officer (or his delegate) should actively manage the risk in accordance with the relevant electoral law.

Curtailling all council communications during a pre-election period is neither practicable nor (as far as mandatory communications, such as those required under the LGA, are concerned) possible. Routine council business must continue. In particular:

- some councils publish their annual reports during the months leading up to an October election, which would include information (including photographs) about sitting members;
- council leaders and spokespersons need to continue to communicate matters of council business to the public.”

Further information about the election is available on council’s website, including the candidate Information handbook which provides further information about legal requirements of candidates. Staff have also been briefed on expected conduct during the pre-election period.
